

Raising Virtuous Children

Do My Children Belong to Me?

Small Group Questions

1. What is your biggest worry for your children? Did you identify with any of the ones mentioned? (It may be different for each child.)
2. How does knowing that your children belong to God change your perspective on worry?
3. With the above in mind, are there any desires you have for your children that you might need to let go of and seek more of what God wants?
4. How can God's divine power help us be ambassador parents?

Today's Verses

Psalm 139:13-16

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

Isaiah verse 43:1

But now, this is what the Lord says: he who created you, Jacob, he who formed you, Israel: "Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine.

Psalm 127:3

Children are a heritage from the Lord, offspring a reward from him.

2 Peter 1:3-4

His divine power has given us everything we need for a godly life through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.
